I think if you would go to the Governor's corner of the building and escort him over and report to the Sergeant-at-Arms when you are here. The Legislature will be at ease until the Escort Committee returns. The Chair understands that we are privileged this morning to have a guest of Senator Lamb, former Senator Adamson from Cherry County. If he is here under the south balcony, Senator Adamson, rise and be recognized. Welcome back. We have another visitor this morning that comes from western Nebraska and we are glad to have you here, a guest of Senator Nichol, the Mayor of the City of Scottsbluff, Mr. Don Overman. Welcome to the Legislature. May I have your attention please. (Gavel.) This morning we are privileged to have, as visitors here in the south balcony, a large delegation of Girl Scouts who are largely from the Homestead Council, one of five Girl Scout Councils in the State of Nebraska, and they represent areas that are included in eleven senatorial districts in southeast Nebraska. Like to give these Girl Scouts a welcome to their day in the Legislature. The Chair recognizes the Sergeant-at-Arms.
